

GEOGRAPHY SKILLS PROGRESSION

CYCLE A
Would you prefer to live in a village in Sri Lanka or England?
CORE KNOWLEDGE
I know that Sri Lanka and the UK are with island nations with very different climates.
I know that Sri Lanka is in the Indian Ocean and the UK the Atlantic Ocean.
I know that tourism can affect how a place looks.

Objective One- Where is Sri Lanka and how could we get there?

Knowledge- I know that Sri Lanka is an island nation in Asia.

R

I can look at where school is on a map.

1

I can find Sri Lanka on a map.

2

I can find Sri Lanka on a map and compare its physical geography to the UK using maps and aerial photographs.

Objective Two- What is Sri Lanka like?

Knowledge- I know that the capital city of Sri Lanka is Colombo.

I can identify objects and images of Sri Lanka and how they differ to the UK, using basic geographical vocabulary to support me.

I can list three key facts about Sri Lanka and discuss how they differ from the UK, using geographical vocabulary to support me.

I can list three key facts about Sri Lanka and compare them to the UK, using geographical vocabulary to support my comparisons.

Objective Three- What sights, smells and tastes might I encounter in Sri Lanka?

Knowledge- I know that countries can have very different cultures, lifestyles and appearances.

I can engage in and enjoy a culture different to my own.

I can identify significant parts of Sri Lanka's culture.

I can identify and compare significant parts of Sri Lanka's culture.

Objective Four- How does life in Sri Lanka compare to that of life in the UK?

Knowledge- I know buildings, such as schools, look different in other countries.

I can draw pictures of different schools in both the UK and Sri Lanka.

I can sort pictures of schools based on their architecture, climate and country of origin.

I can sort pictures of schools based on their architecture, climate and country of origin, justifying my decisions using evidence.

Objective Five- How is Putamatalan different to Par?

Knowledge- I know that tourism and economic growth can change a settlement.

I can spot changes using aerial photography.

I can identify how a settlement has developed using aerial photography and geographical vocabulary.

I can use aerial photography to compare development in Par and Putamatalan, suggesting reasons for the similarities and differences.

GEOGRAPHY SKILLS PROGRESSION

CYCLE A
What would I like to change in my locality?
CORE KNOWLEDGE
I know that I live in Cornwall in the UK and where this is on a world map.
I know the names of the continents and oceans.
I know maps can help me find places and where I am.

